

Having Stravel

Having Stravel is a great FREE way for local businesses to get their workforce to travel sustainably and actively. The innovative new website and app allows employees to log journeys, compete on leaderboards and team challenges to earn rewards.

Sustainable and active travel can deliver huge rewards for businesses – helping to increase productivity, reduce absenteeism and assist with CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) goals.

What does Having Stravel offer?

- A platform to encourage new and current employees to become more active and to travel actively and sustainably
- The ability to engage with staff through healthy competition
- A chance to improve team building and cross-function/site interaction
- A great opportunity for CSR reporting and employee engagement
