

ASB CASE REVIEW REQUEST

You have requested an ASB Case review (formerly Community Trigger), to assess how your reports of anti-social behaviour have been dealt with by public agents acting on your behalf.

In order for the ASB Case Review to be considered, you must meet the Havering Council threshold (set out below for reference).

- If you (as an individual) have complained to the Council, Police or a Registered Housing Provider (Social Landlord) about three separate incidents in the last six months and you consider there has been no action taken.
- If five individuals in your local community have complained separately to the Council, Police or a Registered Housing Provider (Social Landlord) in the last six months about similar incidents of anti-social behaviour and they consider there has been no action taken.
- If you have been the victim of a single instance of Hate Crime

If you feel your circumstances meets any of the thresholds above, please complete this form and return it to:

FAO Community Safety by email to CommunitySafety@havering.gov.uk

Once received, we will review your request and any associated information to see if it meets the Havering threshold. You will then be advised on the outcome of your application and the next steps that will be taken.

If you have any questions about this form, you can contact 01708 43 43 43 and ask to speak with the Community Safety Team , for further advice.
