1. On 24th September 2021, the Council has issued this Temporary Stop Notice alleging that there has been a breach of planning control on the land described in paragraph 4 below.
2. This temporary stop notice is issued by the Council, in exercise of their power in section 171E of the 1990 Act, because they think that it is expedient that the activity specified in this notice should cease on the land described in section 3 below. The Council now prohibits the carrying out of the activity specified in this notice. Important additional information is given in the Annex to this notice.

3. THE REASONS FOR ISSUING THIS NOTICE

It appears to the Council that the breaches of planning control illustrated below have occurred within the last four / ten years:

Without planning permission, the carrying out of activities in association with the material change of use of the land to vehicle storage and / or the maintenance of motor vehicles.

4. THE LAND TO WHICH THIS NOTICE RELATES

319a and 319b Rush Green Road, Romford, RM7 0NJ, as shown edged black on the attached plan.

5. THE ACTIVITY TO WHICH THIS NOTICE RELATES

The carrying out of activities in association with the material change of use of the land to vehicle storage and / or the maintenance of motor vehicles. This includes (but is not limited to) the bringing of vehicles to the site, from the site, and working on the vehicles on the site.

6. WHAT YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DO

- 1) To cease all activities in association with the material change of use of the land to vehicle storage and / or the maintenance of motor vehicles. This includes (but is not limited to) the bringing of vehicles to the site, from the site, and working on the vehicles on the land.

7. WHEN THIS NOTICE TAKES EFFECT

This notice takes effect on 24th September 2021 when all the activity specified in this notice shall cease. This notice will cease to have effect on 22nd October 2021.

WARNING

THIS NOTICE TAKES EFFECT ON THE DATE SPECIFIED IN PARAGRAPH 7.

THERE IS NO RIGHT OF APPEAL TO THE FIRST SECRETARY OF STATE AGAINST THIS NOTICE.

It is an offence to contravene a temporary stop notice after a site notice has been displayed or the temporary stop notice has been served on you (Section 171G of the 1990 Act). If you then fail to comply with the temporary stop notice you will be at risk of immediate prosecution in the Magistrates' Court, for which the maximum penalty is unlimited on summary conviction for a first offence and for any subsequent offence. The fine on conviction on indictment is unlimited. If you are in any doubt about what this notice requires you to do, you should get in touch immediately with Sam Cadman, Planning Enforcement Officer, Mercury House, Romford, RM1 3SL, 01708 433 758. If you need independent advice about this notice, you are advised to contact urgently a lawyer, planning consultant or other professional adviser specialising in planning matters. If you wish to contest the validity of the notice, you may only do so by an application to the High Court for judicial review.

S.171G. Temporary stop notice: offences

- (1) A person commits an offence if he contravenes a temporary stop notice—
  - (a) which has been served on him, or
  - (b) a copy of which has been displayed in accordance with section 171E(5).
- (2) Contravention of a temporary stop notice includes causing or permitting the contravention of the notice.
- (3) An offence under this section may be charged by reference to a day or a longer period.
- (4) A person may be convicted of more than one such offence in relation to the same temporary stop notice by reference to different days or periods of time.
- (5) A person does not commit an offence under this section if he proves—
  - (a) that the temporary stop notice was not served on him, and
  - (b) that he did not know, and could not reasonably have been expected to know, of its existence.
- (6) A person convicted of an offence under this section is liable—
  - (a) on summary conviction, to an unlimited fine;
  - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (7) In determining the amount of the fine, the court must have regard in particular to any financial benefit, which has accrued or has appeared to accrue to the person convicted in consequence of the offence.
