(2) It is considered that the appearance of the dormers at roof level in both the flank and rear elevations creates an incongruous and intrusive feature within the roofscape of the area due to the unsympathetic materials used, harmful to both the host dwelling and the wider streetscene and goes against the grain of the architecture of both the host dwelling and the immediate neighbouring houses, contrary to Policy DC61 of the LDF Core Strategy and Development Control Policies DPD, Policy D1 of the London Plan and is contrary to the Residential Extensions and Alterations SPD and the NPPF (2021).
